

Some bright mornin‘

Spreadin‘ by Servin‘Spirit

Some bright morning you will see,
that love is all you need.
Finally let go the fear,
finally feeling free.

Now it is time, to enter the tribe.
So go face your fear, come home over here.

Some bright morning you will see,
where wickedness will lead.
Full of horror realize,
that this is what you did.

Now it is time, to enter the tribe.
So go face your fear, come home over here.

Some bright morning you will see,
where hypocrisy leads.
Full of horror realize,
that this is what you did.

Now it is time, to enter the tribe.
So go face your fear, come home over here.

Some bright morning you will see,
where hate and greed will lead.
Full of horror realize,
that this is what you did.

Now it is time, to enter the tribe.
So go face your fear, come home over here.

Some bright morning you will see,
that love is all you need.
Finally let go the fear,
finally feeling free.

Now it is time, to enter the tribe.
So go face your fear, come home over here.
