

Be aware

Spreadin' by Servin'Spirit

When you feel,
that your life stands still.
Be aware of your friends.
Be aware someone cares.

You will see
rays of light set you free.
Guide you home to your friends.
Guide you home where you stand.

Be aware: You are here.
Feel the love, face the fear.
And realize: This is you, it's your life.

Then you know,
what to do, where to go.
With your friends by your side,
you feel safe, you feel pride.

Be aware: You are here.
Feel the love, face the fear.
And realize: This is you, it's your life.
